

Relevant Information

Medellin, April 30, 2021

Jorge Andrés Carrillo Cardoso resigned from ISA's Board of Directors.

Following his recent appointment as EPM's CEO, Jorge Andrés Carrillo Cardoso submitted his resignation to ISA's Board of Directors on April 29, 2021, thanking the shareholders in his letter for the trust placed in him.

Dr. Carrillo stated that, because of the great dedication and attention required by EPM's General Management, and to guarantee total transparency in the market in which both companies participate, it was wise to resign from his appointment as a member of ISA's Board of Directors.

Jorge Andrés Carrillo Cardoso had been elected member of ISA's Board of Directors at the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting held on March 26, 2021, prior to his appointment as EPM's CEO.